Canto

by Mut

SANCAL

Canto is the definition of simplicity and flexibility.
Versatility is key, as a single module can be used to create an infinite number of configurations and compositions: sofas, armchairs, islands and much more.

Canto can be accompanied by a totemic small table.
Almost a monolith, the table design also plays with angular and rounded shapes.

Bench
Sample Book Grain | Colour 61251

Note has devised a system of benches and tables that goes beyond a simple furniture family. They understand the importance of these pieces as integral parts of spaces meant for connecting, collaborating, and sharing.

Hence its name: “Cita,” which means “Appointment” in Spanish.

Elle Mini

by Rafa García

SANCAL

The new version of Elle Mini armchair reinforces the simplicity of its design by dressing its structure in Maharam's classic Checker textile.

Seta

by Geckeler Michels

SANCAL

Seta, Spanish word for mushroom, is a rational piece conceived by the Berlin studio Geckeler Michels.
Fusing sobriety, functionality, and industrial inspiration,
it redefines the limits of space.
